Poetry (Kingston residents)
Bulk dates: circa 1860s – 1930s
Pamphlet Collection, PC-36

1 box (5 linear inches)

Historical sketch: Not applicable: see scope and content note.

Scope and content: This Collection of poetry came together as a result of miscellaneous documents, of undetermined provenance, needing to be housed and indexed. The only relationships that these documents have are that they each in some way can be classified as poetry and many of those who wrote them were either Kingston residents or summer residents. The majority of the poems seemed to have been written during the late 1800s – through the 1920s.
